

EADH Membership Report

10 December 2014

1. Overall subscriber and membership numbers

As of 3 December 2014 there are 992 individual members of ADHO constituent organisations and 53 members via centerNet, representing an increase of 355 (+51%) on this time last year, and an increase of 130 (+14%) since summer 2014. This fantastic growth is explained in part by EADH accepting two associate organisations this year (Italian organisation AIUCD - Associazione per l'Informatica Umanistica e la Cultura Digitale, and the German language organisation DHd - Digital Humanities im deutschsprachigen Raum); a surge in joint membership to all constituent organisations; and also centerNet's increasing membership.

In general joint membership continues to be the most popular method for individuals joining any of ADHO's constituent organisations, and where available membership only is now the preferred route.

2. EADH subscriber and membership numbers

From EADH's perspective our total membership now stands at 848 (LLC subscriptions: 42 + AIUCD: 106 + DHd 140 + joint: 560). This is a rise of 347 (+88%) year on year, and 124 more than the summer (+17%). This makes EADH the largest constituent organisation by a fair margin (now one third bigger than ACH). AIUCD and DHd are to be congratulated on their continuing growth, swelling EADH numbers by almost 250.

All members of the EADH Executive Committee, Officers and President are in good standing and have a current membership.

3. Individual membership issues

There have been few reported problems that required the intervention of the Membership Officer; this is not unusual as there is a lull in new subscriptions post conference period. As such, the annual conference is an important driver of (continued) membership. With DH2015 being held in Australia, there may be a reduction in members from Europe during 2015.

One matter of concern was reported on 4/12/2014, where the OUP subscription page was making incorrect charges for the 'membership + society fee' option (it was charging full print pricing). The technical team promptly fixed this, although no comment on how long this issue had been present.

The ADHO 'membership options' page has been edited, to clarify the ADHO and CO structure better; emphasising individual membership is via a CO, and not directly with ADHO.

Work is underway to ensure the 39 DHd members who opted to receive the 2014 journal issues do in fact receive those issues. Apologies to them for not having a prompt resolution, after initial positive discussions over the summer progress stalled until recently.
